

Workshops on Disability-Inclusive Child Safeguarding

22.02.24	9:00-13:00	Disability-Inclusive Child Safeguarding Part 1	online	40,00 € p.p.
21.03.24	9:00-13:00	Disability-Inclusive Child Safeguarding Part 2	online	40,00 € p.p.

This interactive workshop will introduce participants to the requirements organisations need to take to ensure the safety of all children, including children with disabilities. It will explore what is meant by disability-inclusive child safeguarding, and consider how organisations can adapt organisational policies, procedures and programming practice to guarantee their commitment to keep everyone safe as a result of their work. The workshop will also discuss how to involve children with disabilities in decision-making relating to safeguarding concerns that involve them.

Trainer:

Annabel Trapp

Annabel is a dedicated international child rights consultant, with 20 years of experience leading consultations and research, analysis, strategy development, guidance and training with children and adults in diverse development and humanitarian contexts. This includes supporting local organisations in Bulgaria, Cambodia, Sierra Leone and the Philippines to strengthen organisational capacity, policy and processes to take an inclusive approach to safeguarding, including with children and adults with disabilities.
